STUDY IN BULGARIA MEDICINE IN ENGLISH

There are many students who would make brilliant doctors but who feel in the dark about what they need in order to apply. Some of these students may never have considered their talent for medicine. Medical schools want to find the best candidates and believe they can come from any background.

Now lets check if you are eligible to study medicine in Bulgaria. You are required to have minimum of CC at A level in two subjects including Chemistry and one from Maths or Biology. If one of these grades is above you are expected to have BSc Biomedical Science degree.

Naturally, an internationally recognized diploma is not a good enough reason to apply at a university. So why should you choose to study Medicine at Pleven Medical University? Several reasons actually. As mentioned above the university has a large number of international students. This means getting used to the experience of studying abroad will be much easier and the large multi-cultural setting will also help you gain more knowledge with regards to future careers in Medicine.

The university's courses offer both a high level of theoretical understanding combined with practical experience and work in a clinical setting. Under the watchful eye and guidance of academic professionals with years of experience who are either doctors or scientists with a large number of publications students can achieve the best results and prepare themselves for careers in Medicine.

Pleven Medical University has a student dormitory where rooms are usually shared between two or three students. People who choose to stay in the students dormitory of Pleven Medical University will have a private bathroom but will have to share a kitchen with people living on the same floor. There are usually two beds, two desks and a wardrobe in each room. Students are not allowed to cook inside the room. The rent is about 40 Euro a month and includes your bills, e.g. WiFi and heating.
